Each year we offer a limited number of industry professionals a free subscription to Drug Discovery News (ddn). This year you were selected to receive this exclusive offer.

ddn reports on business trends, transactions, market changes, government regulations and product developments that impact decision makers in the pharmaceutical and biotech industry from the boardroom to bench.

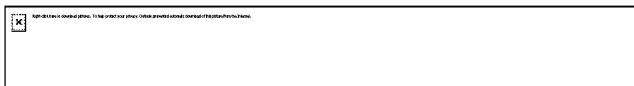

- Stay informed of trends that dictate the marketplace
- Gather analysis of technical and industry information, straightforward, and quickly digested
- Learn how the market will be impacted by the latest mergers and acquisitions

News doesn't stand still, it continually evolves.
Stay current with ddn.

We look forward to adding your name to our valued subscriber family.
